Wash. 31 March 1856

My Dear Sir

Yours of 20th inst. I cannot find that we paid any doctors bill April 1854. At any rate, the Euphrasia was not then on hand.
She sailed Nov. 1854. — If we cannot help it — why we must pay it!

That Express business — I am rather afraid to "put in" at the men here — they are very saucy & unaccommodating — but as about that Telegraph boat — I am afraid
they would come off victorious!

I inclose the Appeal,
I hope you will sound it out loud.
I have not heard a word from Mrs. Sess —
I am becoming anxious — & I had much all your suggestions —

Wm. McLain
