Colon. Office, Boston, April 8, 1856

Dr James Mall
Dear Sir

When I offered the resolution printed in that circular, I was perfectly aware that the interior experiment would in the end cost more than $5000, and therefore inserted the words, "the present year." I see the appeal is made "privately", by inserting it in the Repository for April.

I have learned all I could about that Johnson, and informed Guley. There is no such man in our Boston Directory, or known to our business men generally. There is a Johnson, whose whereabouts is all along the coast from Portland to Philadelphia, but rather more, I guess, at New York than any other single place. He calls occasionally
