My Dear Sir

I telegraphed you to day & hope you will have all things here for meeting of our Ex. Com. tomorrow night. How sorry I am that Mr. Stevens is dead!

I expect to go to New York next Monday - to do some business there, & to meet the New York Board Monday Tuesday. I shall probably return here before I go to Boston. I wish I could spend a night with you as I go - but I cannot - I expect to leave at 6^o a.m. & be in N. York in the evening.

I think we shall fix every thing tomorrow night satisfactorily -

Yours faithfully
W. McLean
