My Dear Sir

I am at home again!
I arrived last evening — am
as well as could be expected,
excepting a most terrible cold —

I find our note due to day to Eaton, Brothers & Co.
for $174.08 — I have telegraphed you to pay it — I am sorry to have to trouble you — but I do not want to be protested —

Dr. Sargent is again ill —
has not been up for three days.

How are you & yours?
My folks are well — I want to see you mightily — Can you not come down & make yourself
quite for a few days?

Yours again
James Hall M.D.
Baltimore Md.

Yours again
W. M. Galt
