

by your order in Boston, with Charges & freight added. Why for then do you 'ask me for' account for transportation of 'Boston things together with Charges?' If I did not charge you enough, I will try again!
I now inclose Mem<sup>m</sup> of items since that date. I have put the Passage at $35.00 - I charged others who paid Passage only $40.00 - which will not more than cover the expense. I ought to have charged the Gnd. Soc. the same, do you think so?

Of Mrs. Sharp's money - Expenses people &c. I sent you account from Savannah - which seems not to have reached you. She gave Mr. Chitwood the gentleman who brought her slaves to Savannah, $700.00, out of which she directed him to pay the Expenses of the people to the ship, to give them some outfit & pay me the balance to me. He left for home, before the ship reached
