My Dear Sir

Yours of the 14th is received with "two forty" — I inclose the Mem. which you gave me — but I do not understand what you mean by saying that with it, I can send you a check for the balance due? The balance seems to be due the other way! So you can just add it to the other balance which you speak of & send check for the whole. — I do not understand why you put the "3.00 discount on Sumner's Money" on the credit side? Did he pay you that & did you write off his miss. stuff at par? And was not that 5.00 which I gave you, to cover the same 3.40 & 2 3/4s about it 2.46 — or what? —
 Now! I have just found out what
