My Dear Sir

Yrs. Sir - I did receive yours of the 21 - I did not answer it - because why? I had some troublesome will cases to attend to - which "came first" - i.e. before your letter - I must be "served fast" I they bothered me much - & consumed much time -
And they are not "done for" yet - some of these coming days they will come up again.

But now - I am going to answer it - Capt. Barron left here last week. He saw Mr. Whittier, Mr. Muley & myself - & we saw him - Mr. Whittier was very favorably impressed - at a meeting of the Ex. Com. last Friday night - they
