Colon. Office, Boston, Aug. 15. 1836
Dr. James Hall
Dear Sir,

Mr. Roper says, in reply to the questions in your letter of Aug. 13. "O!
Don't look at American. Let's see.
The ship is at Baltimore. Tell him to go to John Thursby's sons, in New York. They make as good as any in the world. Or Wm. Hall and son. Or Lawrence Waterbury & Co. They are all right together. We furnish them with immense quantities to manufacture. My son-in-law there will tell him all about them. And he can't be too quick.
Such goods are going to rise in St.
Petersburgh. Hemp is expected to rise to $300 a ton - now, $250. If he moves promptly and makes his contract at once, he may be in season
