

to avoid the rise. Write to him today, by all means. He can get the letter tomorrow. Then, turning to some one connected with his New York House, he told him to put down the names on a bit of paper, which I enclose.

Mr. Trask is at the head of affairs at 159 Front Street, N.Y.

You now have the whole of that palaver—except that he said you would find as good prices there as any where; and he was ~~glad~~ I called today, instead of waiting to see him at the meeting of the Trustees tomorrow morning.

Under such orders to be "in haste,"

Very truly yours,
Joseph Tracy

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

13. May 1855—October 1857

1856