

cruising along the coast of Liberia & the Bight of Benin for the suppression of the slave trade.

I have been interested in the amelioration of the condition of seamen - as well as the colored population - as the records of the Bible, Tract and Seamen's Friend Society will testify for many years past.

My object sir, is to do good and labour for the general good spread of the gospel over the world.

The very best testimonials can be rendered morally and officially. In immediate reply will be acceptable. Very Respectfully

Yours Obedt Servt
Robt B. Hill,
Lieut.
U. S. Navy.
