Colonization Office Mr.
Nov 19th 1856

Mr James Hall

My Dear Sir,

The Board of Managers of the M. S. Colon at its regular Meeting Tuesday 18th inst resolved to make an appeal in N York for aid in behalf of the poor in Union County.

They authorized me to request you in anticipation of that appeal to purchase to the value of $500 of such articles as in your view would be most useful to them especially to aid in rebuilding their homes, burnt by the savages, & in facilitating farming.

A hoghead of tobacco, some H. D. Corn Meal. a few barrels of Beef, Axes, hoes, cutlasses, spades, Bill hooks, saws, hammers
