Colon. Office, Boston, Nov. 19. 1856
Dr. James Hall.

Dear Sir.

The bearer Miss Sarah E. Grant, is a member of the Congregational Church in Bowdoin Street, in this City, under the pastoral care of the Rev. J. B. Waterbury, D.D. She goes to Baltimore by the Steam Packet Joseph Whitney, to take passage in the Mary Caroline Stevens for Monrovia. As she is a relative of the wife of Dr. Snowden of Simsbury, she may wish to proceed to that port at once, if your ship goes there. She takes with her, the orphan daughter of a deceased friend whom she has adopted. I have no doubt that she will receive at your hands, as she deserves, all necessary attention.

Very truly Yours,

Joseph Tracy
