Philad. Nov. 21st 1856.

Gent.

It will afford me much pleasure to be with you on Tuesday next - to see the New Ship, and to interchange views with the friends of Colonization - a cause in which I feel a deep interest.

In accepting your polite invitation, it is on the presumption that it was not intended to be confined to the Members of the Board of Managers of the "Penn. Col. Socy" - of which I am not a member.

Mr Coffinger will inform you how many members of the Board may be expected -

Very truly Yours

To Messrs J. W. Brune Jr.

J. T. King

W. A. Talbot,

Pres. Comtee.
