Mr. Hall

Dear Sir

I wrote you some days since, learning of your expected arrival on the coast, and now again by the news. I thought I would write you a few lines.

We are still under the excitement and anxieties of war, with few prospect of peace than when I last wrote. The expectation of a war on the 19th results important by. A baracade was attacked by 24 Americans in
