the 16th inst which allows him nine days from the time he set out on the tour to Sucah country.— But it may also be seen that he commences his tour for Bassa interim at 7 A M on the 19th inst and according to his communication he reached Grees town 1½ P M

He then built a house from 2½ to 8 o'clk P M and religious service Sabbath — To Monday one whole day exploring the place for the settlement interim of Bassa — But it may also be seen from the communication that this gentleman left Monrovia on the 7th and travelled ten miles into the new country he sat out to explore — the 2nd day 21 miles to Fawbleis town where the Sabbath is spent, and of course remained there until Saturday when he left the country — ~~Extract the cont. he went to explore the same~~ ~~does he say so~~ — noted gives him the short space of 7 days to explore the Sucah country — while on the other hand he took C. V E whole day to explore the place for the settlement interim of Bassa. I ask my candid readers if it does not clearly appear that Mr Seys was biased in favour of the settlement interim of Mesurado County. And indeed it is said that he had ordered the people to commence work before he left for Bassa and really believe it could be proven ~~without much~~ trouble — And in fact in a communication previous to that of Dec. 3rd Mr Seys said what amounts to this, that he was satisfied that the best place for the
