

II A 24

65 Colon. Office, Boston, Feb. 26. 1858
Dr. James Hall
Dear Sir

As our friend, Charles P. Clarke, is going South on business, he wishes to avail himself of this convenient opportunity to converse with you on African affairs. You know already who he is, and how highly we all esteem him, so I need say nothing about that; and I only write to save him the awkwardness to announcing himself when he calls. I think you will perfectly understand each other in five minutes, and both be glad of the interview.

Yours as ever,
Joseph Henry
