Expense, to paid out of a treasury, into which in these days but little comes.
And I have them to come themselves to a decision whether we ought to send the Soc's ship there, at the Soc's expense, and without "just cause". I have not yet felt certain that any of them might would go this fall. I have at present very little expectation that any of them will go. I have written Mr. Tracy, & Mr. Orcutt, too,
