

Without the Mass. or some additional number the ship will do away for business this year. Therefore if the going of the Mass. people depends on her going for this - why then - she must do it.
But I apprehend that going does not depend on that. - Nor do I believe that any good is to be gained by going to Boston which will
at all counterbalance the expense and loss of time. - The ship is
