

Doct. Hall, Augustown Jan 7 58

My dear Sir,

Believing that you are a friend to the degraded sons & daughters of Ham; and cheerfully would do all that is in your power, to better their condition, which you have shown to the world, by living in Liberia, and ~~the~~ also the interest, in the Colonization Society, to transport the free colored people to a land of liberty, where their minds can be instructed & enlightened & where they can become a happy and a pious nation, so much desired by every humane and benevolent heart. This has induced me to write to you, & inform you, what I have heard; you ^{are} living in Baltimore, perhaps ~~are~~ apprized of. Wm. B. Clarke Esq. who was nominated for Governor some years ago, the last time I saw him, before his
