II A 24
Henry Smith a young man of color about 19 yrs of age has applied to me, saying that he would like to go out to Liberia. He has rec^d instruction in the ordinary branches but is now at service with a gentleman of the city -

His views I learn are approved of by his mother & he seems to have informed himself with regard to the proposed step. I learn from him that he has a friend at the settlement [Dr Lane] who married a daughter of Ransom Parker of this place & not long since sailed for Africa.

He would like me to inquire
