March 15th 1859

My Dear Sir,

I rejoice in your prosperity & that you are able to buy the 'Palmas'.
Our Committee last evening, listened to your reply to Mr. Lays' complaints and I believe deemed them in the main satisfactory - They desired me to say, that if you send on an ~~article~~^{more} of the Tobacco it will be paid for. They desired me to express their satisfaction at the letter of Mrs. Dorrin, & that they would be glad, if without too much trouble, you could forward her articles, as they suppose it will oblige her. We Rev J. H. Carter
