II A 24

Dear Sir,

Colo Office of the John 1864
Washington

Mr Whittier writes March
30th: My opinion is that Mr Luther's address & services would be exceedingly valuable in any of the Western Cities. Not so much in aid of immediate collection,
as for disseminating information.
His reception in Kentucky, I have no doubt would be most cordial and highly useful. I will write to Judge Wright &
to Judge Storer at Cincinnati.
He should visit Springfield
& Dayton in Ohio &c."

Mr Nicholson wrote that he should receive the invitation
