Colonization Board

Philad^a, June 30. 1859

Dr James Wall
Baltimore.

My Dear Sir

Will you have the goodness to inform me what price you charge for Colonizing emigrants, and the price you pay Mr McLain for the Am: Col: Society for those who are despatched in the "M. C. Stevens"?

At what age do you apply the dividing line, and Mr McLain with you, between Adults and Children?

Does the Parent Society, in your opinion, make a profit on their present rates for Colonizing emigrants or is it the average cost? Our Board of Managers have this important subject under Consideration, and they wish to be placed in possession of all the facts bearing ^{on} pertaining thereto.

We need the "Journal" for February, 1858, to complete our file for the Library. If you have it to spare, you will greatly oblige me by sending it.

Yours very respectfully,
Wm Coppinger
Pres: P. C. S.
