

intimated to him - that you could probably recall and write out a good many facts in aid of the subject - better than any other man - and that I should be glad - if this matter could be presented to you by your liberal friends - during your present visit -

Yours Truly

Wm Crane

P.S. I could feel gratified - if I could be with you, and we could visit their Burying Grounds - and get you to take some appropriate notes of their departed worthies
