Dear Sir,
Your favour of the 19th inst. only reached me today and I hasten to reply to it. I regret to hear that you are ill and I fear you will not be able to visit London where I should be most happy to see you and confer with you upon Colonization and Liberian matters in which I know you take as deep an interest as I do myself. Your Son is so favourably known in London that his father would be sure to have a most friendly reception there, at any rate I would be most pleased to
