Dr. James Hall,

My Dear Sir,

It seems to be desirable that I should be in Washington before the Sabbath.
I therefore have it in mind to avail myself of the pleasure of spending the next Friday night with you, and go on to Washington Saturday morning. Dr. Tracy regrets that he cannot leave home in time to stop on the way. More when I see you.

Yours very truly,
John Scott.
