Dear Sir

I am obliged by your answer to my letter.
The draft (P. O. Order for $100.00) will remain at the Bank of Commerce, Baltimore, until its maturity. When it will be presented for payment. If at that time you are still out of funds, and unable to meet it, I have directed that the draft be returned to me, without protest. As I shall then probably retain it in my possession, I will be obliged to you if you will inform me when you are ready to pay it that I may send it on again.

Respectfully Yours
Martin H. Roberts.
