

with your father in the breaking up of your the home - How much are earthly things, we be led to such better & enduring We hope your daughter is in good health, remember us affectionately to her, as also to my dear Summer - I hope your daughter that the boat that bears the name of "Carrie Hall" floats now on the beautiful Connecticut, and is used by us in ascending & descending the river.
Mrs Hoffman is sitting by me in my study darning stockings Grace is going to bed, & for myself having had fever for some days, my head is beginning to ache, & it is full time for me dear Sir to say I remain your sincere friend & obedt. C. Hoffman
