Dear Doctor.

I have this morning rec'd
a letter from W. H. Miles Bangor Maine - of which the following is a copy.

"I hoped to have received the $150.
I sent being the amount of the three drafts sent you, long ere this, but have not.

I will regard it as a great favor should you forward the amount to me without further delay, as I not only need the money, but cannot clear up the voyage until rec'd.

The drafts are on the W. H. Miles Co. & Co., concerning which I forwarded a communication from you soon after they were received, & which led him to think the whereabouts would be forthcoming in the course of time.

Be good enough to let me know what I shall now say to him.

Yours truly, R. M. McKee.
