My dear Sir.

By the mail of last evening, I received your favour of the 29th instant. Please to accept my thanks for it, and for sending to me, for perusal, a copy of your letter of the same date to President Benson. I think your letter to President B. is in every respect an admirable one, and I hope it ^{will} serve to prevent any unhappy impression being made upon his mind, by representations from other quarters. Some days ago I wrote to Mr. Gurley, and requested him to send me a copy of the resolutions under which a committee was appointed to write to President Benson.
