

The ~~dear~~ Deaton family have passed through the fever and are up except occasionally chill of fever - they are not very well satisfied from having to pay cabin passage though he is candid enough to attach all blame if any, to himself.
He has selected his land and the building will commence building - I am about repairing the Society's wharf from donations mainly from foreigners - and a few of our people - Contributes G. M. Hall furnished the movement & purposes to getting a Crane for the wharf - Kind regards to Miss Caroline - I remain your Obedt
