

now standing in need of anything tho she chose to send me my respects to Mr. & Mrs. Hall & wife & hoping that they is well — since the war has been fighting in a manner times is now very hard — you will please if you can make convenient as to send me a pair or something that will pay for it self by the shipping the pair would be about fifty or seventy five feet I would if I sent you something by this time but time would not allow me — but I will try & send you something by the next opportunity You must excuse my short letter yours with respects
