Dr James Wall
Baltimore.

My Dear Sir

I have the pleasure to enclose the letter of Dr McLain, advising you of the acceptance of the proposition of the Maryland State Colonization Society in regard to loan to build the "M. C. Stevens".

The paper was left here last week by our zealous President, Mr Lathrop, and is now forwarded you by his request of yesterday.

Dr McLain has been home for a few days with sore throat. He is much better to-day and will be soon about again.

Yours very respectfully,
Wm Coppinger
