

MS. A. 11. 16
Dear Doctor.

I have rewritten the letter and herewith enclose.

I found here awaiting me on my return a very handsome silver medal, making two for me now, as I mention.

The face of the medal bears an angle of a fort with two figures charging towards it with the bayonet. Over it the motto Verro iis libertas perveniet." On the reverse

Distinguished for courage

Campaign before Richmond 1864.

and on the rim, Sergt. Maj Christian Fleetwood 4th U. S. C. S.

The pin by which it is suspended is in shape of a leaf and is inscribed Army of the James

It is a beautiful affair.
