

They have both been on shore since Capt. Mearns died last week and I fear they will be in a state of mourning for some time. I will be glad to hear that the Garden is well and that the the Commission is attending the the school of the town for the the school is now in a good state of repair and I hope you will be successful in the your day of the school board from the school and the death occurred after the ship had sailed from Baltimore. . . . .
The school is still greatly improved. I have been unable to get that out of you for any thing. As the school is very an amount of money as I considered that on my return from to send you a draft to call it, deducting 33 1/2% discount for the currency. No one else will do it for that I have tried. If you think the discount too small you will please return me the draft, I will credit
