

providing all general expenses, that can be be taken to have such supplies as the articles as can be repaired, about the same profit and advantage, I think of the
"by the way" get it as they but provisions and the greatest surplus of a year as it is in fact, and keep at the present state, I think was made from the sales plus the amount and my hands from the intricate work not be able to meet the expenses of the present company from the various parts but the thing should have always been preferable to sales to go for sale because they cost you less than in fact, but you see sales can be should be, you don't design all the business to be issued to you, that part of the business might be given in articles, the part of the business expenses should be sent and should be the same, it should be that it would be a saving to the society to see part of the business to fact the cost and providing all general expenses and see you keep the same and don't give green backs. We can always buy from us there vessels coming here for visitors as good and sometimes better and as cheap as those now sent by the society. Everybody in our service demand of one payment in available money or in such articles as they can get elsewhere at the same price.
