

Colonization Board

Washington, D.C. March 21st. 1868

George W. S. Hall Esq
Baltimore.

Dear Sir

I hand you herewith the note of this date from Mr John Heron, applying for the position of Steward of the Golconda.

Mr Heron is the young man who attended the Misses Gurley on the last voyage of the ship, and is said to have had much experience in Cooking and waiting while in this country and to have acted as steward of the ship on her homeward run.

I met him at Columbus Georgia, and at Charleston last fall, and think very favorably of him and his parents and relatives - in all a goodly number who have settled at Buchanan.

Very truly Yours,
Wm Coppington
