Washington, D.C. April 8. 1868

George W. S. Hall Esq
Baltimore.

Dear Sir

I beg to hand you herewith a letter from Mr Henry Sumner, dated Newberry C.H.
S. C. April 4. and one from Mr Henry Fournel (Col.) dated Knoxville, Tenn: April 5. Both in regard to the return of people from Siberia by the Kolenawa.
I have acknowledged their receipt and told the writers I would give them this reference and that you would give them the desired information.

Your dispatch is received. We cannot send Charlotte Blair home. I have just written Mr Sumner that you have informed me that she is in distress, and asked him to communicate with her friends and have them send for her.

Very respectfully yours,

Wm Coppinger
