

(2)

4. Are the unmarried emigrants kept separated? and women and children protected in their moral feelings?
5. Is there any agent of the Amer. Col. Society sent out with the ship, with power to represent the Society and exercise its authority over both officers and emigrants and also to regulate and control the disposition of the colonists after their arrival?
6. Are they placed in the most advantageous positions for health and welfare after their arrival? and supplied with the requisite care and assistance?
7. Does a Doctor go out with the ship?
8. Is there an ample supply of food for the health demand?
9. Could not African Coffee be supplied to the emigrants on their passage?
10. Does the ship carry for them, their household bedding and utensils?

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

16. January 1868—November 1871
September 1872 (1)