

The sentiments advanced by Mr. Frelinghuysen at the last Anniversary of the A. C. S. are the sentiments of the progressive in Liberia.

I thank you for the interest you felt last winter during your visit to Mr. Thomas, in going to see my aged mother. I regret that I cannot do more for her in her old days.
She has written to me since your visit, she is much better than when you were there. I trust that while you live you will continue to ^{do} what you can for the Negro race, which has so few friends even among some of its quasi members.
