Dr. James Hall

Dear Sir. I do not think that Little Bemy has lost, or would lose, a good chance in waiting for the Holconda. If one should offer, he would come to me for information before refusing.

When at Washington, I understood that there were between 400 and 500 waiting for a passage in May. What has become of them? I write to Coffin-ger today, asking explanation; but I should like to know what you think of it.

Yours, truly,

Joseph Tracy
