My Dear Sir

You seem to distress that you have only a few left of the same sort of those yellow envelopes!
To me — & mine — & all of us — it is a matter of the greatst pleasure! They are no mean for respectability!
I could say a great deal more on the subject but I forbear!

Once upon a time I said all if Dr. Hall has been thrown from a horse then every other man may look out for squalls! And now I am compelled to say — well — he is the last man that I should think a
