

St Louis, Mo., May 12th, 1857.

Dr James Hall,

My dear Sir,

I have taken the liberty of directing to your care a small parcel, forwarded by "Adam's Express Company", for my brother, John G. MacKenrod, who is, I understand, at present attached to a vessel of which you are owner.
Several letters, also, for Mr. MacKenrod, have been sent to your care by members of his family here. Will you be kind enough to see that he receives them and the package mentioned? I presume he will hardly have left Baltimore before the receipt of this. I am very sorry, Sir, to be obliged to trouble you, but be sure you will do me the kindness I ask.

Very Respectfully Yrs,
John G. MacKenrod
To, Dr. Jas. Hall,
