The Mary Caroline will sail for Liberia, we learn, about the 20th inst. Our Mission will likely have freight for Africa by her hen, but how^{much} I am not prepared to say. I must beg you to send forward that box now at your rooms, as it contains matters of some importance to our Mission work.

Since we arrived in N. York, each has had his turn of cold, hoarseness, & coughing night & day every few minutes. I am hardly able to speak loud now.

Mrs. M. L. has written you I suppose, an account of her adventures among the Doctors, so I need say nothing on that point.
Wishing you continued health & prosperity, I remain yours
