

Dr. Jas. Hall
Baltimore

Philadelphia May 7th 1857.

Dear Sir

I forwarded to your care by Ericsson line, one box of Drugs for Rev. D. A. Wilson, Monrovia, Liberia, which I will thank you to see properly stored in the vessel. It should be placed with the directed side up, so that there can be no leakage from the liquids. The value of the contents, in case you wish to effect insurance, is 24 dollars.

respectfully yours

G. W. Fahnestock

Please present my parting remembrances to Mr. Melan, with many fervent wishes for his safety, and prosperity in his noble and self-devoted labor.
