

Colon. Office, Boston, Sept. 20. 1857
Dr. James Hall

Dear Sir Rev. E. B.

Eddy says that Sarah E. Grant wrote to him, that she had sent a box of curiosities to him by the M. C. Stevens, and paid two dollars for the freight. He has not received it. If with you, please send it by steamer to my care. If not, please inform me.

Mr. Eddy's family was her last residence before unbartering. He is decidedly of opinion that the little girl should remain where she is, and doubts the right of any body hereabouts to control the matter.

Yours as ever,

Joseph Tracy
