

Colon. Office, Boston, Aug. 25. 1857
Dr. James Hall

Dear Sir. A young Gibern, who, I believe, went out with you, has returned, and brought word that Miss Grant had a relapse of the fever, and died early in May. Her friends want to get that little girl home again.

Can she come in the Stevens? How much will it cost? Is there any doubt about the possibility of bringing her on the ship's return from her next voyage?

If she comes, I suppose she must be consigned to you, and be sent to Boston by the steam packet.

Please let me know how the thing can best be done, and oblige
Yours, as ever,

Joseph Tracy
