Dr James Hall

Dear Sir, I am out among the mountains. The above is, & will be my address for the next two months probably.

I feel perfectly well, suffering neither pain nor inconvenience of any sort. Appetite good, & enough to eat

There is this drawback about it, my throat will not, or I imagine it will allow me to do as I once did; & there follows me a most stubborn Cough cough. This does not appear so much in the irregularity of the coughs, as in the ~~character of the~~ hard & unnatural character of
