Dr J. Hall 1857
Dear Sir

My Mother desires me to request you to inform us at your earliest convenience of the probable time of the arrival of the M. C. Stevens - Factor, from whom we have heard twice during this week (once per "Gen. Pierce" and by the British (mail steamer also) des Mother to meet him in Baltimore - Not wishing to be there longer than necessary, she will not leave here until about the time the vessel is expected to arrive - Give us all the information you can on the subject.

Wishing to be remembered to George & Miss Hall, with much respect, I am &c
