

Colon. Office, Boston, Aug. 29. 1857
Dr James Hall

Dear Sir. Accept thanks for yours of Aug. 27. But you overlooked the question on which there was the most doubt, viz: How much will it cost? Please answer, and if you cannot tell exactly, tell as near as you can.

I have no doubt it would be better for the girl to stay where is; but I suppose it will be impossible to make her friends believe it.

I see Draper occasionally, he likes his situation as well as he expected. C. P. Clarke, Robert's partner, knew him in college. I will do your errand when I see him.

Yours, as ever,
Joseph Tracy
